BETTINA

And now can you believe it, just one more contestant before it is time to vote! So many countries in such a short time, just like Kontiki tour, but without the unplanned pregnancy.

Our final contestants come from a country where if you are caught drink driving , you go to jail, lose your license, and are fined ten per cent of your annual wage.

How depressing! No wonder they all drink! Ah yes, Norway and how fitting they are represented tonight by a bunch of angry sexy punks!

So let's welcome to the stage our final contestants, make some noise for the Magnussson Seven representing "NORWAY!"
